Definitions & Restrictions—Sorting & Penning

- Riders are responsible to know/understand the WTPC Rules which can be found on the WTPC website.
- Participants must change (1) rider on each team in all classes unless drawn as a duplicate.
- Open, Amateur, and Novice Penning and Sorting classes must have a minimum of one draw.
- Open Limited: Must have AM or NOV rating—all 3 riders must meet criteria. Open Limited also required to ride minimum of 1 draw team.
- Green Novice: 1st or 2nd year penning or sorting and/or have less than $200 in earnings, have a Rating Committee approval.
- Green Novice Penning: Green novice penning will be drawn with 2 green novice riders and 1 open, amateur, or advanced Nov rider for the first 3 events. After the first 3 events, 3 green novice riders will be drawn per team. Duplicate Green Novice teams will be accepted if drawn that way.
- Green Novice Sorting: Green novice sorting will be two green novice riders, with coaching by an open or amateur rider. Green novice riders have the option to pick 1 team and draw 3, or to draw all 4 teams. Duplicate Green Novice teams will be accepted if drawn that way. For the Open/Amateur rider to be eligible to participate the open/amateur rider must also ride in their designated class and are not permitted to ride a training horse
- Separate Penning and Sorting points will be kept for each rider.
- Must be a WTPC member in good standing and participate in at least 70% or more of all Sorting events to be eligible for year end Sorting Awards and at least 70% of all Penning events to be eligible for year end Penning Awards.
- To qualify for Finals Must be a WTPC member in good standing and participate in at least 4 or more events
